Reply to Trace Requests

Ref: GLA-5108, 2 September 1953

1. To regret the delay in trace. The following are trace which you may not have:
- a. DANJANOFF, Feder- MAS-43, of 27 December 1946, has informed alleging that TESTET was working under pressure for the KGB. However, the document itself has been borrowed by [redacted] and is not available here. There is no other information on it connection of the LAMBERT's, father and son.
  - 2. EMIL - a Czech EMIL, of Vienna, was listed in HUTTL's address book, forwarded under MA-558.
  - 3. AMERLICH - mentioned in MA-104 as member of a fabrication ring which might be RU inspired. However, this is information available to you.
  - 4. THE HAVLIK - a SHUTTI AMIC, a Czech, is reported on an old trace card to have been working for the KGB in Prague in 1947. The trace continues "can inform on KGB travel and activity in Prague, works for KGB for fear and greed; poor security risk".
